

*Granny Ida
Today I lost my Grandma,
A woman that I love
She was there for me as a child
As I know she will be from above.*

*Today she is with God above
No more pain of sadness in her eyes
With her son and loving husband
They'll all watch us from above.*

*Today we say goodbye to the woman
That we knew and tell her that we loved
Her and we hoped that she knew.*

*Yes, I may have lost my Grandma,
As we lay her to rest today
But we will always love that angel
She became just yesterday.*

*By Granddaughter,
Julie Randolph Dillashaw*

In Memory Of Ida Isabell Randolph
